The Bad Boys of tarot are here to teach us a lesson, especially the ones that are Major Arcanas. Match the statements below with the Bad Boy card by drawing a line from statement to card - just like when you were in school!

I feel lost. My life has just lost meaning and I feel like I need to start all over!

I feel like nobody really sees how much I do around here, my wife doesn't help at all, and I do everything for the kids. Life is really hard. But I would never say anything, it won't help.

I came home and my daughter just lost her mind and started yelling at me! After everything calmed down, I realized this had been building for a really long time.

My boss is just a jerk, he has no idea how important I am in this company! I am the hottest salesman in all of Canada. I'll show them how amazing I am!
